Manikins, Posters, Fairy Tale and Other Characters Appear on Stage.

The members of the Juntor League, acording to their custom, gave their annual entertainment last night in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria for the benefit of numerous philanthropic plans in the way of settlement work and social service which they have been supporting for several years. The entertainment, entitled "Around the Clock," included a series of dances and a pantomime depicting the day of a girl of fashion or a debutante. It had been successfully worked out under the guidance of Mme, Inga Sontum Lie.

The girl's day began at 10 o'clock when she was wakened from her sleep by the sound of a hurdy gurdy. This Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore induced some of her friends to gather Roosevelt Pell, Dr. and Mrs. Preston P. about her for a hurdy gurdy dance, Satterwhite, Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, which was performed to the music of Mrs. Cyril P.
